

LEGACY BOOK PROGRAM

Friends of the Libraries

"The gift of a book is as gift that gets opened again and again."

The Friends of the Libraries' Legacy Book Program is a great way to honor a friend or loved one, celebrate an event or accomplishment, and help the Wright State University Libraries at the same time. Your contribution expands the possibilities throughout our collections, benefiting the campus and surrounding communities. A bookplate with your information is placed within each contributed book, and you will receive information about the book title selected. Thank you for supporting the Wright State University Libraries.
