

MS-220 Edward A. Korn Collection

Collection Number: MS-220

Title: Edward A. Korn Collection

Dates: 1908-1979

Creator: Edward A. Korn

Summary/Abstract:

This collection documents the aviation careers of early aviator Edward A. Korn and his brother Milton H. Korn. The bulk of the collection is comprised of aviation photographs. It also includes some of Korn's correspondence about his experiences in aviation and selected clippings and articles that were published about him and other early aviators. It also documents Korn's background in farming, including photographs, catalogs, and postcards related to farming and threshing machines.

Acquisition:

The collection was donated to Wright State University in September 1991. Additions were transferred to Wright State University from the University of Wyoming's American Heritage Center in June 2008.

Custodial History:

The collection covering the period of 1908-1916 was donated in September 1991 by Ted Korn, Jackson Center, Ohio, the son of Paul G. Korn. Paul was Edward's cousin and the person to whom Edward gave his collection. Nine of the photographs were copies which originated with Emily Ambos. Additions (including a scrapbook/photo album prepared by Edward Korn, two additional loose photographs, postcards, clippings, and steam and threshing publications) were transferred from the University of Wyoming's American Heritage Center to Wright State University in June 2008.

Alternative Form Available:

The photographs in Series I have been scanned and are available online in Wright State University's Campus Online Repository (CORE Scholar):

Series I: Photographs

Series II: Correspondence, Clippings, and Miscellaneous Documents and Publications

Biographical/Historical Note:

Edward Albert Korn was born on Mar. 2, 1888 in Montra in Shelby County, Ohio, the vicinity of the Korn family's farm. John and Mary Korn had seven children, and Edward and his younger brother Milton were the eldest of the four boys. As members of a farming family, these Korn brothers grew up working with farming machinery. Their mechanical interest also extended to aviation, and in 1909 and 1910, they built a monoplane on their farm, one of the first airplanes built in Ohio.

Edward Korn trained as a pilot at the Benoist School of Aviation at Kinlock Field in St. Louis, Missouri in 1911 and 1912. He was licensed by the Aero Club of America on May 1, 1912, receiving license number 117, becoming known as one of the “Early Birds”, one of the aviators who was licensed to fly before 1914. Korn was also an assistant instructor at the Benoist School (1911) and an exhibition pilot (1912-1913). He and his brother Milton had opened the Korn Brothers Aeroplane Company in Sidney, Ohio by 1913 and also started a flying school.

Edward Korn also served in the Ohio National Guard and had been educated at Capital University, the Ross College of Chiropractic, and the U.S. College of Naturopathy.

Scope and Content:

The Edward A. Korn Collection documents the aviation career of “Early Bird” Pilots Edward Korn and his brother Milton.

Series I, Photographs, roughly covers the years of 1910-1916 and focuses on the Korn Brothers’ planes and flights. The series is comprised of 109 individual photographs as well as a photograph album of 27 photographs that include both typewritten and handwritten comments from Edward Korn himself. The album also includes an article about the Korn brothers.

Many of the photographs form a visual record of the only surviving Benoist plane, a biplane, Type XII, Number 32, originally owned by Edward Korn which he deeded to the National Air and Space Museum in the late 1940s (Walker, L.E.).

The Benoist Aeroplane Company was based in St. Louis, Missouri and Sandusky, Ohio and constructed plans from 1910 to 1917 (Walker, L.E.)

Series I has been digitized in its entirety and is available online in Wright State University’s Campus Online Repository (CORE Scholar):

http://corescholar.libraries.wright.edu/special_ms220/.

Series II consists of correspondence, typewritten manuscripts, newspaper and journal clippings, post cards, and farm machinery catalogs of varying sizes. The majority of these items focuses on early aviation history and the Korn Brothers’ aviation career, but some of the items also document the Korn’s farming background with catalogs of farm equipment companies and a small number of post cards illustrating threshing machines.

Series I: Photographs

All of the photographs from Series I have been digitized and are available online in Wright State University's Campus Online Repository (CORE Scholar):

http://corescholar.libraries.wright.edu/special_ms220/.

To search for a specific image from this collection in CORE Scholar, search for the item using the following format: ms220_B_F_xxx, where "B" is the Box number, "F" is the File number, and "xxx" is the three-digit Item number listed in the finding aid. If the Item number is less than 3 digits, include leading zeroes. For example, to locate the first photograph listed, search for ms220_1_1_001. Capitalization is not important (e.g., ms220_1_5_058a = ms220_1_5_058A).
