

SC-150 Dayton-Wright Company Record of Employees

(7 items)

The collection consists of seven Dayton-Wright Company “Record of Employee” envelopes spanning the period 1922 to 1924. Each envelope provides the following information: name of the employee, address, marital status, age, person to notify in case of emergency, date of employment, department assigned, foreman of the department, rate of pay, and class of work. Inside the envelope are pay slips and other information about the employee, including the reason for termination.

The collection of records was donated to Wright State University Special Collections and Archives by Virginia Rockey Jenkins on December 5, 2003.
