[Body of letter]

November 3, 1900.

Mr. Paul Laurence Dunbar,
Washington, D.C.
Dear Mr. Dunbar:-

I thank you very sincerely for sending me a copy of the New England Magazine and more heartily for the poem which you were kind enough to dedicate to me. You perhaps have noted that the Outlook for the present week reprints it from the New England Magazine. I send you under separate cover a copy which contains the first installment of an effort of mine.

Thanking you again for your very great kindness, I am,

Yours truly,

[signature]

Booker T. Washington
