[Letterhead]

White House, Washington

[Body of letter]

Personal

November 2, 1904.

My dear Mr. Dunbar:

I am touched that you should have written me from your sick bed. I appreciate the poem. As a token of my regard, will you accept the accompanying two volumes of my speeches?

With best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely yours,

Theodore Roosevelt

Mr. Paul Laurence Dunbar,
Dayton, Ohio.
